

THE 41ST NAACP IMAGE AWARDS

THE 41ST NAACP IMAGE AWARDS celebrates the accomplishments of people of color in the fields of literature, music, television and film. The awards also honor individuals or groups who promote social justice through creative endeavors. Founded in 1909, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is the nation's oldest and largest civil rights organization. The organization's half-million adult and youth members throughout the United States and the world are the premier advocates for civil rights in their communities and monitor equal opportunity in the public and private sectors.

NEW YEAR'S EVE LIVE

Horns blow, the crowd screams and confetti pours as FOX rings in 2010 by bringing viewers the energy and excitement from New York City's Times Square. The annual special will feature musical performances by today's hottest artists, celebrity interviews and a midnight celebration that will usher in the new year with a bang. When the famed New Year's Eve Ball makes its descent into Times Square, FOX cameras will be there to capture the celebration live.

TEEN CHOICE 2009

Hosted by Jonas Brothers, TEEN CHOICE 2009 celebrates the hottest teen icons in film, television, music, sports and fashion. The coolest stars, best films and best TV shows of 2008-2009 will receive coveted Teen Choice Award Surfboards in categories such as Choice Bromantic Comedy, Choice TV Villain, Choice Chick Flick, Choice Breakout Music Artist, Choice Red Carpet Fashion Icon, Choice Female Athlete, Choice Male Hottie and Choice Hookup. Every year, the special features appearances by "choice" celebrities and performances by some of pop music's hottest stars.
